

Peconic Lawn and Tree Care – an established, high end, full-service residential landscape maintenance Company in Southampton, NY – is now hiring for the following position:

INTEGRATED PEST MANAGEMENT (IPM) TECHNICIAN

We are looking for an outstanding, educated and motivated individual to join our dedicated team of professionals. We offer a competitive compensation package and great opportunities for growth in an expanding business.

Responsibilities include:

- Functioning as a plant health care technician with the primary responsibility of using the correct diagnostics, products and methods to ensure good plant health for our clients' properties.
- Managing and coordinating jobs along with administrative duties, scheduling, inventories, equipment maintenance, record keeping and report writing
- Serving as an integral member of a team of professionals which is committed to safety on the job, accurate reporting and record keeping, and excellent customer relations.

Requirements include:

- Strong pesticide application skills.
- Effective administrative, communication and problem solving skills.
- Valid and clean driver's license
- English-speaking/Spanish-bilingual a plus
- Pesticide license helpful, or will train

Please send resumes to [info@peconiclawn care.com](mailto:info@peconiclawn care.com) or fax to: 631-287-7396